Moos, Koch To Compete In Scramble

Jackie Moos, Freshman vocational agriculture student of Hondo, will take part in the San Antonio Fat Stock Show Calf Scramble Friday night, Feb. 10, during the rodeo performance.

According to a release from the Livestock Exposition, George D. Koch of Hondo has entered the Calf Scramble and will appear during the night go-round on Friday, Feb. 17.

The Stock Show is again sponsoring a calf scramble at each rodeo performance using 20 boys and 10 calves. The ten boys who catch calves, halter and lead them from the ring will receive purchase tickets certificates in the amount of $60, $50, $40, $30, $20 respectively.

These boys must use this purchase certificate to buy an animal for their project program. In past years Hondo FFA Chapter has had only one boy, Bill Moos, catch a calf in these scrambles. Other Hondo boys who have entered were less fortunate, but had fun in the race. Only FFA boys from the Revalina FFA District will be in the scramble Friday night.

To Attend Show

Hondo FFA boys and FFA girls will attend the San Antonio Fat Stock Show on Rural Youth Day. The rodeo show has been received for the afternoon performance. There will be 95 boys and girls and their sponsors attending.

CRAWFORD ANNOUNCES FOR D. A.

R. S. (Bob) Crawford, Jr., this week announced his candidacy for District Attorney for the 38th Judicial District, composed of Zavala, Medina, Uvalde, and Real Counties.

Crawford, a 35-year old native of Zavala County, has practiced law in Crystal City since May 1949. In announcing for District Attorney, he said, "I feel that I am fully qualified to serve an elective term as your District Attorney, having had almost seven years experience in general law practice, including trial experience in civil cases and prosecution and defense of criminal cases. If elected, I pledge myself to the vigorous fulfillment of all of the duties of the office, using all of my efforts and diligence in this direction. Your vote, support and influence is earnestly solicited and will be greatly appreciated."

Crawford is the son of R. S. Crawford, Crystal City attorney, and the grandson of the late W. T. Childress, pioneer Zavala County citizen and businessman. He is married and the father of one daughter and two sons; served 4½ years in the United States Army during World War II, with 18 months overseas service; graduated from A&M College of Texas in 1942, and following his Army service graduated with a law degree from the University of Texas, prior to returning to Crystal City to open law practice with his father.

Wednesday - Feb. 1 - 38

4,577 Pay Poll Tax In County

Although the poll tax payments did not break the record for Medina County, a last minute surge of payers brought the total up to 4,577. This plus the issue of 65 exemptions to those who are 21 and eligible to vote for the first time brings the count up to 4,642.

In a county this size, exemptions are not issued to those over age, who may simply go to the polls at election time and vote. Estimates of several hundred of these over age voters would easily bring Medina County's total voting capacity past the 4,000 mark.

During the last national election year, a total of 4690 poll taxes and exemptions were issued. This was in 1951 for the '52 elections. Last year, an off-year for elections, only 3241 poll taxes and exemptions were issued.

In looking through our exchange papers at the Anvil Herald office, it was found that few counties set a record with their poll tax payments this year.

By comparison to county populations, Medina County makes an excellent showing in the payment of the tax. Uvalde County issued only 3707 poll taxes which is 870 less than ours. Other counties and poll taxes issued are: Robstown, 3638; Dimmit County (Carriazo Springs), 1765; Maverick County (Eagle Pass) 2150; Frio (Pearsall), 2280; Gillespie (Floresville), 3213; Gillespie (Fredericksburg), 2976; Kerr (Kerrville), 4087; Guadalupe (Seguin), 6451; and Comal (New Braunfels), 5578.

PATROLMAN CHECKS 2 ACCIDENTS

The Texas Highway Patrolman stationed in our area, John Huie, investigated two traffic accidents recently.

Saturday night, Jan. 28, Forrest Bare was driving a '53 Mercury and heading toward Bandera on Farm Road 492. Three miles north of Hondo, he overturned on a curve. Huie's estimate of damage on the car was $75.

About 6 p.m., on Sunday, Feb. 5, Apolinar Jasso of San Antonio tried to pass a '55 Oldsmobile driven by Clarence Dewey Vergara, also of San Antonio. He did not have sufficient clearance, according to Patrolman Huie, and his '49 Buick sideswiped Vergara's car about one mile east of the Medina River Bridge at Castroville. Damage to Jasso's car was $350, to Vergara's car, $400.

Burglary Charges Filed Against Robert Gaconnet

Robert Lee Gaconnet, 34, near was arrested for burglary and theft over $50 by Sheriff C. J. Hitzfelder and Constable Pat Mangold of LaCoste the following day. All items stolen from the Pitman residence were recovered.

Hitzfelder says Gaconnet is also charged with stealing drilling equipment, parts of farm equipment and pipe.

Dog Poisoning Found In Hondo

Several dogs have been poisoned during the last couple of weeks in Hondo.

Dr. E. L. Kelley, who has treated some of the victims, reports that strychnine was used.

Monday, Jan. 30, Henry Martin Finger's fox terrier was a poisoning victim but was treated and recovered. But this Monday, Feb. 6, the poisoner returned and finished the job. The dog died.

ALL WORK AND NO PLAY makes Jack a dull boy, and so Dennis Mann is taking no chances. While hard at work in reading class, he pauses for a moment to sneak a Be-My-Valentine

WILL PIPE WATER TO CEMETERY

It is anticipated that the Woodmen of the World Cemetery will be transferred to the City of Hondo, according to Mayor O. A. Fly.

"The recent transfer to the City of Oakwood Cemetery means that the city will see to it that water lines will be installed in the very near future," said Mayor Fly, "and that the city will make no charge for the water used there."

He went on to explain that the city will maintain the roadways, fences and general upkeep of the cemetery as a whole, but did not mean perpetual care of individual lots and plots.

"Grass planting, curbing, cleaning of individual plots will be up to the persons owning them," he continued. "Albert Mumme has been taking care of many plots and will continue to do so but not at the expense of the city. Care is to be given the lots and plots, the individuals owning them must pay for that service."

"This is a new venture for the City," Mayor Fly commented, "and the revenue for the general upkeep, repairs and water installation will have to be financed in some way, possibly through a cemetery tax. This will be worked out within the next few months."

Social Security in Hondo

One can get a free copy of new social security booklet at San Antonio office at 309 Avenue or from the representative, William Watson, in the District Courtroom, Monday, Feb. 16, 1956, at 10 a.m.

Does Social Security Affect Families?," a question-answer booklet, which is brief and easy-to-understand and answers questions farmers are asking about old-age and survivors insurance, has been issued by the Social Security Administration.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

I wish you could read some of the letters I am receiving from Texas farmers and from business-men in farming areas.

They are deeply disturbing.

They tell of economic losses--of hardship--of forced sales of livestock and farm equipment. They tell an alarming story of small farmers having to leave the land.

Much of Texas is still suffering from the effects of drought. But there is more to the farmer's plight than drought.

No small part of the farmer's present troubles is due to policies deliberately set and deliberately carried out by the Department of Agriculture of the present Administration. Look at these facts:

Since January 1953, when Secretary Benson took over at the Department of Agriculture, farm prices have fallen from 94 per cent of parity to 82 per cent of parity.

During this three-year period, prices received by farmers for their crops fell 12 per cent. Prices they received for their livestock and produce fell 16 per cent.

Has there been any such corresponding decrease in the prices of the things farmers must buy? You know there has not.

The Bureau of Business Research of the University of Texas recently issued a "Scoreboard for Texas Business." It showed gains and losses from 1954 to 1955 for 17 different categories of business.

Seventeen categories -- and only two categories showed a loss for 1955 as compared with 1954.

Those two categories (1) Prices received by farmers (2) Farm cash income.

Retail sales were up, life insurance sales were up, bank debits were up, cement production was up, electric power use was up.

Everything was up except farm prices and farm cash income.

The farmer is not getting his fair share of the national income. That is bad not only for the farmer; it is bad for the country as well.

To correct this situation we need to pass legislation that will at least slow down -- and I hope will stop -- this process of "Bensonizing" the farmer. That is what I am working on now, as hard as I know how.

Sincerely,
Lyndon B. Johnson

FARMERS MUST FILE REPORT BY FEB. 15

Farmers who passed up the January 15 deadline for filing estimates of 1955 income need to file their final 1955 income tax return by February 15, 1956 to avoid penalty, says Mr. O. W. Sides of the San Antonio Internal Revenue Office.

For income tax purposes, a farmer is one who derives two-thirds or more of his gross income from farming.

Wardrobe Planning Cuts Costs

Check family clothing needs for spring and summer now. Begin planning long before you shop. Keep your present wardrobe in mind as you make each new purchase. The "misfits" in your closet are the most expensive items.

At least twice a year check the clothes you have. Make a plan and stick to it. Ask yourself these questions before you buy: Do I really need it? Does it go with what I have? Can I afford it?

SECO PHILOSOPHER WANTS Farm Classified As Foreign Soil So He Can Get In On Foreign Aid

Editor's note: The Seco Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm has a unique solution for the farm problem, slanted in his favor, naturally, his letter this week reveals.

Dear editor:

I was sitting out here by the fire the other night reviewing the proposed United States budget, mostly out of curiosity, as I always like to see what one looks like. I don't use one myself out here on this farm, don't have to, the bank budgets me, and I was reading along letting the figures sift through my mind like sand running through your fingers and carrying about the same meaning, when I realized I'd passed a couple of significant figures and went back and checked.

Sure enough, the figures were for farm aid and foreign aid. According to the budget, the government proposes spending nearly five billion dollars on foreign aid this year, and not quite three and a half billion on farm aid.

My neighbor claimed what this proves is that it's cheaper to own foreign land than domestic, you get more aid and don't have to pay taxes, but I don't agree, I'll keep my land in this country.

But I did get to thinking. Understand, I don't know anything about foreign aid, it may be cheaper than fighting a war, although I imagine if you went back far enough you'd find a good many countries we've helped in the past were fighting us in the last two wars at least, and I know we're now helping some of the countries we whipped in the last one, but if the experts in Washington say we ought to spend more than ever on foreign aid, it's not my job to disagree. They may be right.

But I was just wondering. Is there any way part of the surplus farm land in the United States could be classified as foreign soil in order to get in on some of that foreign aid? Couldn't Congress pass a law temporarily designating my farm as a part of India until the farm crisis passes? I understand to get in on this foreign aid you've got to be backward, use out-of-date farming equipment, look a little run-down at the heels and indicate a willingness to be friendly toward a hand-out, and I believe I could meet those terms satisfactorily.

Of course I wouldn't want to lose my voting privileges. I don't want to be classified as a foreigner myself, but if it would ease

CASTRO LULACS MEET FEB. 6TH

CASTROVILLE — A special meeting was called Monday night by Lupe Garza, president of Junior Lulacs, to discuss plans for a dance on Friday night, Feb. 10.

They also discussed plans for Lupe Garza and her chaperon, Miss Adelina Salazar, to attend the National Convention of the Lulacs at Corpus Christi, Feb. 18th and 19th. Expenses are to be paid by the Junior Lulac Council.

The council has bought $112.00 worth of baseball equipment for the ball club and a net and volleyball for the Junior Lulac girls, which will be set up at the new lot that was recently donated by J. T. Lawler.

the government's conscience any, it would be all right to classify my farm temporarily as foreign soil and remove it from the tax rolls, and I'll carry on as long as the checks keep coming in. After that naturally I'll vote for the other party, or whichever one that keeps the most aid coming in.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Fletcher Davis

THANKS A LONG-TIME FRIEND
FOR THE PRIVILEGE OF USING HIS
RECOLLECTIONS OF PIONEER DAYS

MR. M. A. KELLER RECALLS SOME EARLY HISTORY

Dear Mr. Davis:

I received last week's paper in which I noticed an article referring to the old Presidio Road. Judging from the article, there must have been more than one, but I do recall one road which the old timers called the old Presidio Road. That was at the time we moved to Black Creek in '82. I recall the road very well, for I have traveled it from our place to the Hondo Creek, where it crossed the creek on the land known as the John Redus ranch, later bought by J. E. Adams. We traveled on the east of the Hondo for about 1 1/2 miles before we crossed the Hondo. This road was very plain as it passed thru the S. E. corner of our land, just about 50 ft. from the old sand field, which was the property of the Bendele's, thence S. W. thru the N. W. corner of the Chas. Brown tract; thence on thru the Perkins place, now owned by Mrs. Roberson. From there, it passed thru the Sam Howard place in a S. W. direction until it crossed the Hondo as stated above. If I recall correctly, it crossed the Francisco between the Littleton and Panteo places, thence on to the Medina at the Mann crossing. I do not know if I am correct as to the name of the crossing.

When we first moved to Black Creek in the early eighties, there were no fences. We had to ride all over the country looking after our cattle. On the Brown place only a few hundred feet from the present road there was a large lake of water about 3 to 4 ft. deep. There is where we found axes, wheel hubs, and other iron from ox carts. We were told that the Mexican Army was caught in ambush and all were killed and their carts destroyed. If this is true, there is no way to verify it. This, I do know, however, that on the Roberson and Bendele sand fields great efforts were made to find money that was supposed to be buried, but if ever there was any found we do not know. It seems the Bendele's cleared all the trees off the sand field. I was told by Louis that when they were clearing they found trees with marks, etc., but paid no attention, and the same thing applies to the Roberson field, where the holes have been dug.

Yours cordially,
Mat. A. Keller

The foregoing from Mr. Keller, was received before that part of our story in which Judge Haass mentioned the "Lower Precidio Road" had been printed, and because Mr. Keller's recollections seemed to bear out the accuracy of Mr. Haass', we asked permission to print his letter.

In his reply, giving the requested privilege, he included this further paragraph dealing with the same subject, which we herewith quote:

I think it was in 1878, when the Indians made their last drive in what we call the Black Creek section. They caught two boys between the Morris hill and Black Creek. One got away since he had a fast horse. One was killed by the Indians and was buried on what is now the J. W. Roberson farm only a few feet from the road that runs from Lee Bohl's to Zig Zag. There is a monument on the grave of one John Abernathy, and this young boy was buried about 20 ft. N. E. from this stone. The grave was covered with logs, but if anything remains I do not know.

WHERE FACTS AND FICTION CLASH

From Judge Haass' numerous notes on Medina County history, we cull the following random item:

"The Rising and Setting of the Lone Star Republic," a book by Miss Mattie Jackson, 1926, Page 21:-

"In 1836, while Col. Jack Hays and Gen. Castro, a French Count, were locating Castro's Colony lands at Castroville, near San Antonio, the Comanche Indians surrounded them. Col. Jack Hays, commanding 70 men, formed them in a circle, while he and Castro stood in the center. Hays told his men not to fire until they could see the Indians' eyes and that he would give the signal to fire by firing his own pistol. His order was to fire only two shots, as the Texas Rangers were armed with big lagoon revolvers which shot one-half ounce balls. The revolvers were issued by the Lone Star Government." (Page 22)

"After the fight, which was at the Quibi Water Hole, seven Indians were found dead. Every Indian in the band was killed."

How seven Indians could surround 70 Rangers and why Capt. Hays allowed two shots to each of the seventy rangers, or twenty shots for each of the seven targets does not appear, but of such stuff is fiction made!

And fiction it was, for Judge Haass adds this comment:

"No such Indian fight is reported anywhere—Henry Castro was not in Texas in 1836."

"Soil Bank" Not New But Old Friend Of The Farmer

Recent proposals concerning the national farm program have given added weight to the old declaration — "there is nothing new under the sun."

The idea of a "soil bank" is a sound one. Certainly, any program which is directed towards maintaining and preserving that vital six-inch average of cover that feeds and clothes our nation is worthwhile. We have had it before.

The Soil Conservation Service will recognize the soil bank plan as an old friend with a new name. The program was almost strangled by cut-backs in appropriations and adverse policies some three years ago. Now it is being revived with a few minor changes.

The soil bank plan was one phase of President Eisenhower's recent congressional message which received the most nation-wide publicity. It was advanced as a forward step in curtailing over-production and reducing surpluses. There are two sides to that argument.

Opponents of this theory point out that this same program, under the title of soil conservation a few years ago, did not have the effect with which it is now attributed. Its primary purpose was to enrich the soil so that it could produce MORE when the land went back into production — which it eventually does. The crop lost during the "laying out" of the land was more than compensated for during succeeding years of production. Can this lead us to more surpluses in future years?

Proponents of the "soil bank — less surplus" theory say it will take marginal land out of production. To a certain extent, it will. But at the same time, a great number of entire farms can be classified as marginal. These farms are not going to be abandoned entirely under this plan. Only a certain percentage of the land will be retired on a temporary basis to revitalize the soil.

Never-the-less, this soil bank or soil conservation program — call it what you will — can provide many long range benefits. But harm also can come from it when the plan is advocated as a cure-all for the problems which plague agriculture today. It should not be used as the focal point to draw attention away from the pressing needs of our farm people in Texas and the nation.

The soil bank is not the complete answer to our farm dilemma. But is a well-remembered friend of all our farmers who mourned its death under the name of soil conservation three years ago.

KILGORE'S CAPITOL COMMENTS

THE COST OF WAR . . . in human lives is staggering. According to the Veterans Administration, there have been from the United States 31.8 million participants in all of the wars in which this nation has been involved and of that number 989,000 people have died in the service of our country. In the American Revolution a total of 395,000 people were involved with a loss of 4,000 lives. Of the 16,535,000 participants in World War II, the deaths totaled more than all those involved in the Revolution. Those who gave their lives during World War II totaled 409,000. Living veterans total 22,051,000 persons. There are 1,155,828 surviving parents, widows and children of veterans in addition to 2,688,828 veterans who receive compensation through the Veterans Administration.

THE SPECTER . . . of the silently marching ranks of the heroic dead and the reality of their survivors and the wounded survivors of our wars lurk in my mind like they do in yours. When we attempt any comparison of the past to what a future war would be like, it is such a jolt to all of us that the matter of Peace overwhelms most other considerations.

OUR EFFORTS, HOPES AND PRAYERS . . . for Peace bring us face to face with the reality that as long as there are forces loose in the world motivated by a Godless concept of power and government that our strongest deterrent to such a force is our own defensive strength and our retaliatory striking power. An investigating committee of which I am a member has undertaken as a part of its duties a full-scale determination of our civil defense status. In such a study we must necessarily examine the military offensive and defensive capacity of this nation. We have and will continue to hear testimony from our top scientists and military leaders. Our aim is that of affording the greatest possible protection of the civilian population of the nation. The study will take all the time our committee can it for several months and I hope to give you periodic reports of our work.

SIR ANTHONY EDEN . . . the British Prime Minister, addressed the House today. He received a warm ovation—quite genuine—especially when he asked us to help him to forever bury the ghost of the rumor that the British Prime Minister only came to this country when he wanted to ask for money.

A HISTORIAN . . . of the Senate, after reading the book written by Senator Kennedy of Massachusetts about past Senators and Senates, opined that this Senate under Lyndon Johnson is probably as great or greater than any Senate in history.

ODD FACTS DEPARTMENT . . . It seems hard to believe, but cornerstones of three of Washington's most historic buildings are lost. The lost cornerstone of the Washington Monument contains some 7 mementos including all of the U. S. coins of the year 1848, and a lock of hair from the granddaughter of President Andrew Jackson was sealed in the lost cornerstone of the Treasury Building. Actually, it is not known whether the White House really has a cornerstone, but records indicate that a large metal plaque shows where the cornerstone was laid. To date, however, the plaque has not been found.

THE WORK LOAD . . . in the Congress at times reaches staggering proportions. During this Congress and as of this writing, a total of 13,582 bills and resolutions have been introduced in both Houses, 10,082 in the House and 3,501 in the Senate. Bills before both Houses totaled 12,079, of which 8,978 are in the House and 3,101 in the Senate. The remainder of the measures include various types of resolutions. Of all these measures before the Congress, 401 have become public laws.

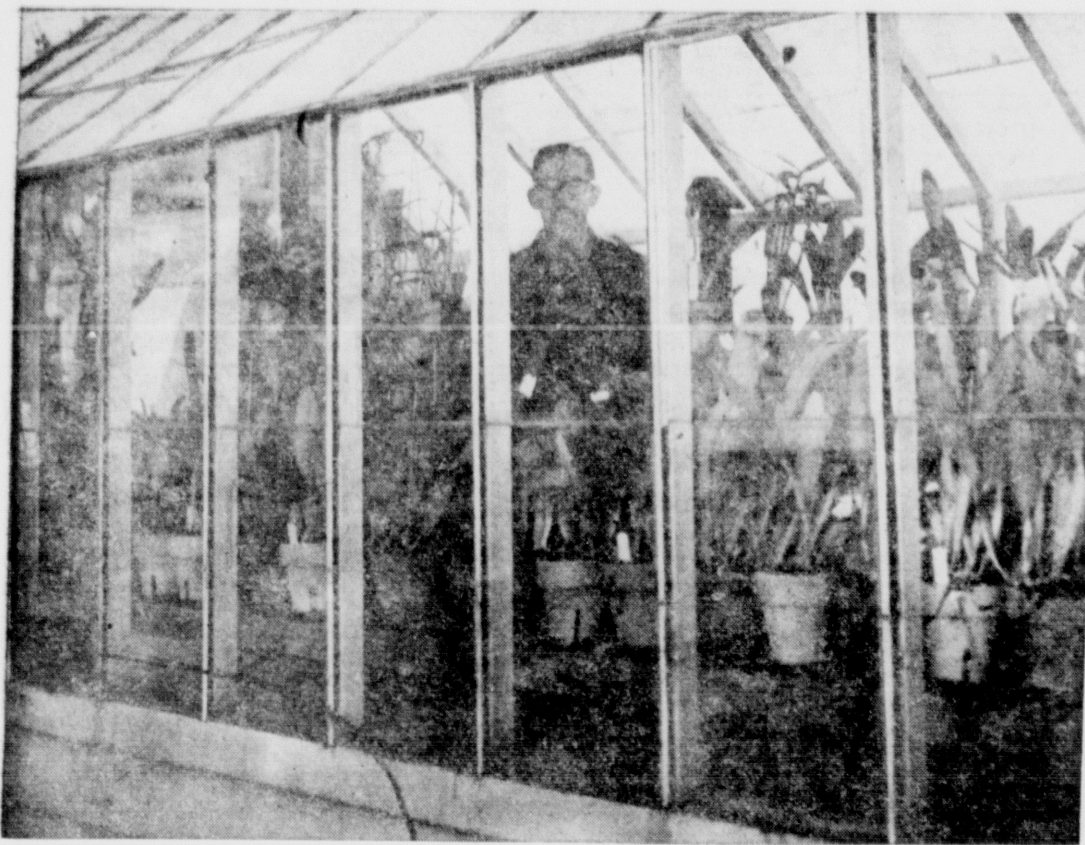

THE HOUSE . . . voted unanimously to amend the Internal Revenue Act of 1954 to repeal the excise tax on gasoline and special fuels used exclusively in non-highway farm operations. It is expected that the Senate will act on this soon.

Babson Talks Politics

BABSON PARK, FLA. — Since my recent weekly column which favored the nomination of President Eisenhower, I have received letters from publishers stating that my column is supposed to discuss Business and the Stock Market, and not politics.

From the time of the Civil War up to 1932 our country was on the Gold Standard. This gave both a certain "ceiling" and a certain "floor," which it was difficult for business or the stock market to break through. Furthermore, this made it fairly easy for any impartial statistician and economist to make reasonable forecasts, irrespective of party politics. My forecast of the 1929 break was made during the Hoover Republican Administration when his managers were forecasting "two chickens in every pot and two cars in every garage."

Since 1932, however, the country has been on a political standard, and the Gold Standard has been discarded. This is no criticism of the Roosevelt Administration, because I feel that the Gold Standard had outlived its usefulness. We will probably continue on a Political Standard, whether in a Republican or a Democratic era. I have not the figures here in Florida which show just what business and the stock market have done in Presidential years; but anyone sending to my Babson Park, Mass., office will be welcome to them. It is generally assumed that one can forecast business by watching the stock market, but this is not true. In the long run, there is of course a correlation, but it cannot always be depended upon. In other words, we may have a Democratic victory in November and yet have fairly good business through 1957. I go even further and say that if the tide should shift naturally due to the Law of Action and Reaction—during a Republican Administration, the result could be worse than if the Democrats were in power. This is because the Republicans stand for less interference with business and would not so freely use artificial stimulants.

President Eisenhower, for instance, is determined to have a balanced budget. It would be very hard for him to agree to any inflationary projects, even for the sake of helping business. On the other hand, the Democrats believe the government is entitled to issue more bonds and create "greater indebtedness as the country grows in population and assets, just as any large corporation is entitled to do. Therefore, although the Republican party may be more friendly to "Big Business," the Democratic party may try to be more friendly to all business; but please note my use of the word "try."

Remember the old saying, "There is an exception to every rule." Notwithstanding the fundamental principles stated above, I still believe there is today a very close relationship between the nomination of President Eisenhower and the stock market. I perhaps should not have included in my Forecast for 1956 the reelection of President Eisenhower in November; but due to reasons which I cannot disclose—I did then believe he would be re-nominated and re-elected. I may be absolutely wrong; but I am still of this opinion.

This one thing I am certain of: As soon as President Eisenhower assures his intimate friends and party managers of his intentions, readers should see an abrupt stock market movement, either downward or upward, depending on whether he will not run or will run. I shall now try not to discuss politics any more until October, but rather will "stick to my knitting" as my publishing friends request. At any rate, with this column my conscience is clear, whatever happens in 1956!

BRUCELLOSIS COSTS MILLIONS

COLLEGE STATION — The eradication of one disease, brucellosis, would save the livestock industry of Texas an estimated ten million dollars annually. In addition to the direct loss from the disease, an extension service veterinarian, reports other costs are piling up which are difficult to estimate.

Out-of-state buyers of feeder and breeder cattle are showing some hesitancy in making purchases because of the high incidence of this disease in Texas livestock. Too, the marketing of dairy products within another two years will hinge on the control of the disease.

All county agent and 60 practicing veterinarians of the state have been kept informed on current trends, regulations and methods of attacking the bovine. This was accomplished through meetings and correspondence. Both groups have also been sent information which could be used in their county programs.

A 105 POUND LAMB raised by Clara Stein of LaCoste was named Reserve Champion of the stock show Tuesday.

4300 Firms Must File With Employment Office

Almost 4,300 firms in the South Texas district—those who hire four, five six or seven workers—are reminded again by James Strauss, district director of the Texas Employment Commission, San Antonio District, that they may have been brought under the Texas Unemployment Compensation program on January 1.

Strauss advises that these South Texas employers heed a recent public statement by Weldon Hart, chairman of the Texas Employment Commission and contact the state TEC office at once.

Strauss estimates that some 17,250 South Texas employees gained the benefits of unemployment compensation this year. The TEC district director further quoted Hart as explaining that following amendments to the Federal Unemployment Tax Act last year, the Texas Legislature changed the state unemployment law accordingly. Any business which has as many as four employees on 20 days in 20 different weeks after July 1, 1955 becomes liable for unemployment tax on its payroll during 1956. Beginning January 1 any firm which has 20 such weeks during a calendar year in which four or more persons are employed on any day, will pay unemployment taxes.

"Not only firms which regularly employ as many as four employees will be affected," Hart explained, "but also a small business which has four people working only Saturdays, or one which regularly has two employees during the day and two others at night, will owe the payroll tax at the end of each calendar quarter."

Any employer who has employed four persons in 20 weeks during 1955 should notify the Texas Employment Commission in Austin now, Hart added, so that an explanation of how to comply with the law can be sent to him. "We have little experience yet with the 35,000 firms that have four to eight employees," Hart said, "but we think that the group includes many, many stable firms that have very low turnover—the drug store, grocery, barber shop, service station and cafe."

This stability suggests that unemployment insurance claims may be made very rarely, and consequently tax rates can be held low. "The opportunity to save taxes through the 'experience rating' system in the state law is one of the reasons why the Legislature brought in the smaller firms. Had the Legislature not done so, these employers of four to eight would have had to pay a full 3 per cent federal tax. Under the Texas 'experience rating' plan, tax rates after a qualifying period of from 1 1/2 to 2 years can range from a maximum of 2.7 per cent to a minimum of 1-10 of 1 per cent. The TEC collects the State Tax and the Federal Government collects 3-10 of one per cent for administrative purposes. This feature of state operation of the unemployment insurance program saves Texas businessmen millions of dollars each year."

As Rare As Tree In Brooklyn

An Orchid Plant Grows In Hondo

By Sally Brucks

"The loneliest hobby in the world," is the way Hugh Meyer described his hobby of growing orchids, because there are so few people in the immediate area who grow the exotic flowers.

The Hondo attorney started his hobby when a friend gave him a plant. He kept it in his bedroom but it refused to grow. Then he was presented with another plant which also refused to show any signs of growth.

"Along about this time, I began to feel mad and frustrated about the two 'orphans' I'd been given, so I built a small attached greenhouse to the garage at very little expense and the plants began to thrive," he said. "And, as one thing calls for another, in the four years since I started this hobby, I have accumulated about 400 plants altogether." He went on to explain that the 400 plants constitute something like 200 different varieties.

"Growing plants from seed to flowering takes something like six years," commented Meyer, "and I haven't that much patience in waiting for blooms, so I buy the plants. Seeds are taken from the plant, placed in a flask containing a mixture of agar, sugars and various minerals. The flask is then stoppered with cotton to allow a small amount of air to enter but to keep solution and seeds free from contamination."

"The peculiar thing about an orchid seed is that it doesn't store any food to grow on. In the wild state, it grows in the crotch of a tree where leaves gather and decay, giving sustenance to the seed," he continued, "and it takes it about a year to develop roots and leaves."

The plants are epiphytes rather than parasites as most people believe, Meyer explained. This means that the plant gets its food sources other than the tree it grows on.

At the end of a year in the jelly-like solution, the tiny plants are poured from the flask and 25 or 30 plants are placed in a small pot filled with osmundia fiber (roots of the cinnamon fern). They are left to grow another year, taking food from the fiber. At the end of the year, they are separated and put into individual small pots and each year thereafter are transferred to larger pots.

The tiny hair-roots have a cork-like covering and the plants form "pseudo-bulbs." These thickened stems store moisture. Another peculiarity of the plant, according to Meyer, is that you water it, then let it stand for a long period without water. When it becomes dry, you water it again. Constant moisture on the plant retards growth.

Each new growth on a plant will produce two to four blooms. Hugh once had a plant that produced 23 blooms at the same time, which is rare.

He has had many interesting experiences with his hobby. He chuckles over the time he had a beautiful yellow orchid which he wanted to show to friends. He left the door to the hot house open for a few minutes and a bee flew in unnoticed. About 30 minutes later when he wanted to show off his unusual orchid, he found that all the flowers in the greenhouse had been pollinated, causing the flowers to wilt. "An orchid wilts within 30 to 50 minutes after it has been pollinated," Hugh grinned, "and that bee had had a field day."

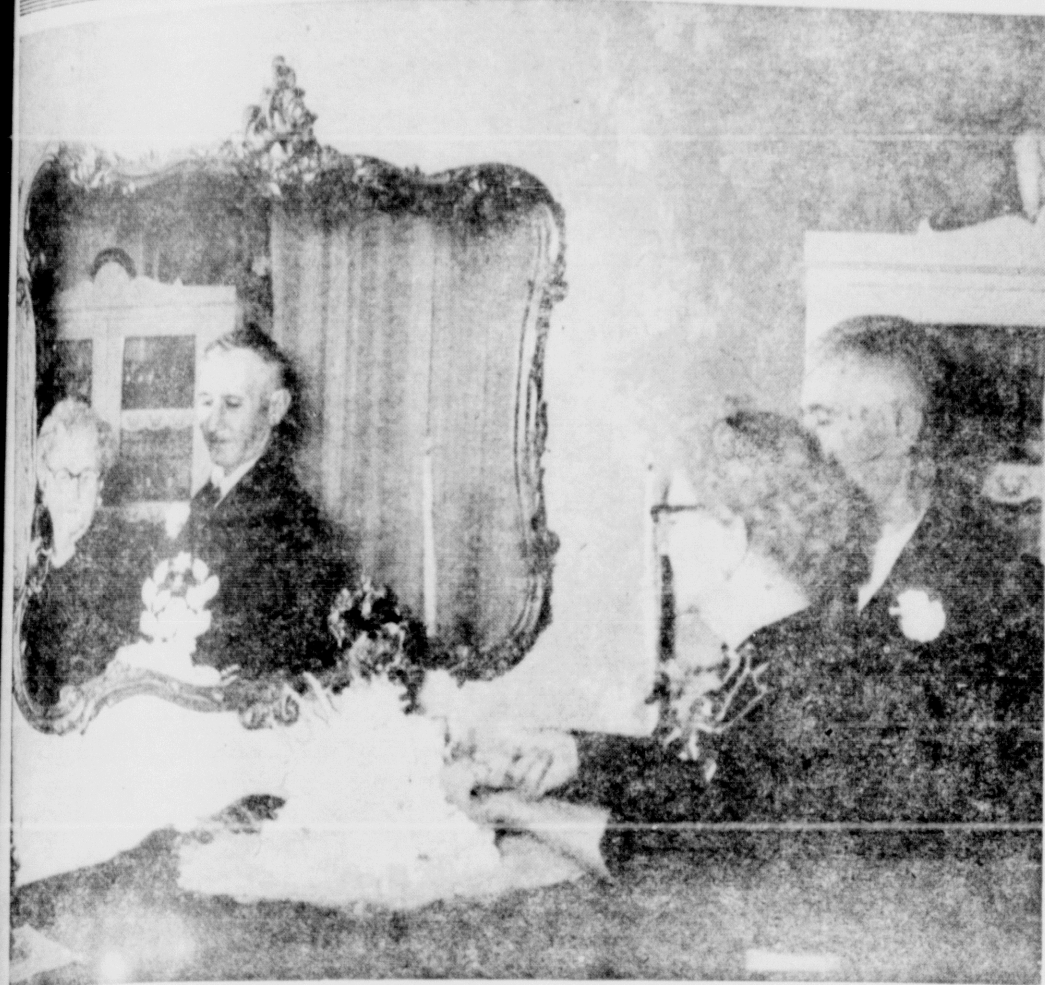

Mary Meyer is almost as interested in her husband's hobby as he is and helps him by keeping an eye on the humidifier in the greenhouse when he is at the office or out of town. "Hugh's hobby isn't expensive," she explained, "because he is a do-it-yourself person when it comes to building things. The automatic humidifier in the greenhouse, for instance, was built from a humidistat, a piece of a washing machine, some pipe and fine nozzle sprayers, and an electric switch. When the humidity reaches a certain point, the sprayers turn on automatically."

Meyer says that she claims to have no part in his hobby, but when the plants begin to put on their technicolor blooms, they automatically become hers, and her table and mantle are often graced with centerpieces of orchids.

"It is an interesting hobby and one that makes you go off the deep end with adventure in trying to grow new and unusual plants," the orchid culturist said, "but when you find yourself loping across the yard in your night-shirt at 3 a.m. when a northern blow in, for the specific purpose of turning on heaters to save the plants in your greenhouse, you know you're crazy!"

OLIVER
"FINEST IN FARM MACHINERY"

$1 for fuel, $2 for you!

That's just how it works out when you go to an Oliver diesel. Where you used to put, say, three dollars' worth of fuel in the tank, now it takes but one—you keep the other $2.00.

How can this be? Well, in the first place, you burn only six gallons of diesel fuel to ten of gasoline. Then, of course, your diesel fuel costs much less. These two factors—fewer gallons, lower price—knock as much as two-thirds off your fuel bills.

And Oliver diesels have no extra starting engine. There's no special starting fuel required. Remember, Oliver alone offers you a dollar-saving diesel in each of six wheel tractor sizes.

They Torqued it up for the BEST TAKE-OFF YET

FIRST THING you need in a car, of course, is power to spark performance.

And you get that in a 1956 Buick in plenty — from big 322-cubic-inch V8 engines that hit new highs in horsepower and compression.

But the power under the hood must be carried to the rear driving wheels in the form of twisting force on the drive shaft.

That's torque — the end-product of your transmission.

And the higher the torque build-up—the greater the "torque multiplication" in starting and accelerating—the better the getaway and response.

So if you want to feel take-off that leaves your breath behind you, come try a '56 Buick with Variable Pitch Dynaflo.*

For in this airplane-principled transmission,

Buick engineers raised the ceiling on torque to give you the best getaway yet.

They did it with something they call "double regeneration"—a new way to make flowing oil add to its own velocity.

And when you use the full torque of a Buick beauty like the one pictured above, you're using the highest torque multiplication to be had in any standard-production American automobile today.

Come see for yourself what that means in new thrills and new safety.

You'll find brilliant new getaway response in the first inch of pedal travel—plus greater gas mileage to boot.

You'll find an electrifying new safety—surge of full-power acceleration when you floor the pedal and switch the pitch.

And you'll find this spectacular performance blended into the smoothest-traveling, the sweetest-riding, the highest-powered and the easiest-handling Buicks yet built. Drop in on us this week—today, if you can—and judge things firsthand.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

SPEAKING OF SPORTS

By Dr. John H. Jennings

Hi-Way 90 League officials had their 1st meeting for the approaching season last Monday in Castroville. John Beidiger of LaCoste was re-elected League President and a new Sec-Treas. was elected, Boehme, also of LaCoste.

The most important matter of business was that of adding a new member. . . Jimmy Amberson of Hondo Air Base got enough votes to allow the base to enter a Hondo Air Base team. This should be a big help to the league for a lot of good ball players arrive at the Base. The big problem will be keeping up with the turn-over personnel. A team must play the season with the roster submitted by May 13th, Jim seems to think he can make ends meet, however.

This will deprive the Hondo Braves of some needed talent but should work out for an improved league. These seven teams will make up Hi-Way 90 and with seven teams . . . each week will find a team off: Castroville, D'Hanis, Hondo, Hondo Air Base, LaCoste, Rio Medina and Quihi.

Another league meeting has been set for February 28th. The season will begin on March 25th and end August 12th. Three rounds will be played.

Junior Owls Defeated

The Jr. Owls were knocked out of the Carrizo tournament last weekend in the 1st game, Cotulla, who won the tournament, defeated the Jr. Owls 31-15. In consolation play, Hondo defeated Asherton 24-12 and for the consolation championship Big Wells edged the Juniors 22-21.

One bright aspect was the fact that Charles Neuman, a boy who has the makings of a truly all-around Owl star of the future, was a unanimous choice for the All-Tournament team. The 7th grade Charles is about 6 ft. tall and weighs 165 lbs., and seems to have the other equipment to go with it for most all sports.

A&M Scout Here

A football talent scout from A & M was a Hondo visitor Saturday evening. He did not get to talk to the Owl seniors in question but asked a lot of questions of basketball coach Tom Mosley as Buck Carver was out of town. The scout will be back soon.

San Felipe Thriller

The Owls and San Felipe tied up in a real stemwinder last Tuesday as the Mustangs took a 79-76 DOUBLE-OVERTIME game. The Owls, as did San Felipe, had to finish without their regulars in the lineup . . . everyone had fouled out. In fact, San Felipe had to get 2 "B" team boys out of the stands so they could complete the game. Windrow, Hartman, Leazenby and Ham mall fouled out in the long game. Torres of San Felipe was high point man with 24, while Alvin Hartman was close behind with 23. Jimmy Leazenby got 18 and Butch Smith 13.

The Owls seemingly had the game on ice as they had a 5 point lead with only 29 seconds left in the 2nd overtime, but to the despair of Coach Tom Mosley and the Owls, a stolen ball or two and a couple of fouls gave the Mustangs 8 points in the final 29 seconds! This loss eliminates the Owls from any chance at the district title. Cotulla leads with six wins and only one loss. Crystal City was defeated by Pearsall 45-44 for their 2nd loss of the year and this gave undisputed first place to Cotulla.

Game Here Thursday

The Owls will play Carrizo here Thursday night, Feb. 9. This is the game that was postponed last Friday due to icy roads. The girls play at 6:30. The Carrizo girls are the district leaders and will have their tall All-State girl, Schmidt, with them. February 10th, the Owls go to Pearsall and then end the season here Tuesday, February 14th, against the District Leader Cotulla.

4 TEXANS AT PRAYER BREAKFAST

Four Texans participated in the Fourth Annual President's Prayer Breakfast sponsored by the International Christian Leadership organization last week, and Senator Price Daniel was elected president of the group.

The Texans were all at the speaker's table with President Eisenhower, and all took part in the inspirational meeting attended by 80, including the Cabinet and most of the members of Congress.

In addition to President Eisenhower, who was born at Denison, and Senator Daniel, there was Howard E. Butt, Jr., of Corpus Christi, noted Baptist layman who made the main address. The fourth Texan was Conrad Hilton, owner of many of the nation's leading hotels, who was host for the annual breakfast.

Daniel also presided at other meetings being held last week during the Annual Christian Action Conference sponsored by the
